From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 1.

Buda, July 12.

UPon the Advices which we receiv'd last Week, that a Body of 3000 of the Malecontents was advanc'd into the Neighbourhood of Vazia, General Pfeffer-shoffen our Governour sent out five Saicks to get a View of them, who return'd with an Account that the Malecontents were actually sat down before that Place, but not altogether in so great Number as was reported. We have likewise Advice, That Prince Ragotski is march'd to Segedin and has invested that Place: That there has been frequent Skirmishes between his Troops and the Rascians; and that the greatest part of Transilvania, except the Places that have Imperial Garrisons, have declar'd for the said Prince, but have committed no other Acts of Hostility. There is a Talk of a Letter receiv'd by Prince Ragotski, in which were inclos'd the Pictures of his Princess and two Sons, with these words, This is the last Opportunity of asking Pardon; 'Tis said he was very Melancholly on the Receipt of it.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 17.

Basil, July 10. The 7th of this Month the General Diet of the landable Cantons was open'd at Baden. The News we have receiv'd of the Victory gain'd by the Allies on the Schellenberg, came very opportunely; for we are well assur'd the Marquess de Puisieux, Ambassador of France, had Orders to carry it very haughtily to the Diet aforesaid, on Account of the Progress of the Arms of the King his Master in Portugal and Italy; but this great News, has not only made him delay his Journey to Baden, (where he was not arriv'd yesterday,) but has extremely mortified the Emis-saries of the Crown of France.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 22.

Baden, July 13. The 10th the Marquess de Puisieux arriv'd here; he was not a little disturb'd to observe the Joy most of the Deputies of the Cantons shew'd upon the News of the Victory gain'd by the Allies near Donawert. Mean time he wakes great boast of the strong Succours which the Marshal de Tallard is leading to the Elector of Bavaria. The 10th this Minister had Audience of the said Diet. The said Minister has caus'd Te Deum to be sung in the Parish Church of Baden, for the Birth of the Duke of Beragne; he invited all the Deputies of the Cantons to be present at this Ceremony, but only those of the Roman Catholick Cantons appear'd. The Marquess of Bereti Landi, Ambassador of Spain, is arriv'd here, but Monsieur de Mellaredé keeps away.

Revel, July 1. The Muscovites being inform'd, that General Slippenbach with 1400 Horse, and some Foot, Swedes, was near Weissenbourg, detach'd some days ago from their Forces that block up Nerva, 3000 Foot and 5000 Horse to attack him. This Detachment fell upon our Men, put them to the Rout, and pursued them within six Leagues of this Place, with the loss of 600 Men, their Baggage, two pieces of Cannon, and several Standards; Among the Slain were a Major General and three Captains of Horse; General Slippenbach himself was wounded. The Remainder of his Troops are retir'd within a League of this Place. They were design'd, with some other Forces, to relieve Nerva; which important Place will, 'tis fear'd, upon this Disaster, be forc'd to yield to the Muscovites, who keep it closely block'd up.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 29.

Riga, July 9. The Czar of Muscovy has in Person laid Siege to Dorpat, and already made 2 Assaults on that Place; but his Troops were repuls'd both times with great loss, and 'tis thought he will hardly venture to make a 3d assault because he has but 10000 Men at the Siege. His Forces that lye before Nerva, keep that Place so closely block'd up, that 'tis believ'd they will at length reduce it by Famine.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 12.

Paris, July 12. We have Advice by a Ship which left the Havana the 28th of April, and is arriv'd at St. Lucar, that a Party of English in North America, had been upon the Coast of Florida with 1500 Men, and endeavour'd to possess themselves of la Puebla del Apalache, but after two Months Siege were oblig'd to retire, having lost 203 Men; the Spaniards had but three Men kill'd and one Captain wounded. These Advices add, that the English had made several other Attempts on divers places of the Spanish Colonies, but were repuls'd from all of them with Loss.
